International Conference
Pan-Africanism and Negritude: Dialogues between Africa and the African Diaspora
(Past, Present, Future)
Howard University, Blackburn Center,
Washington, DC  November 4-6, 2015

Plenary Speakers:
- Dr. William Mina Aragón, Universidad del Cauca (Colombia)
- Jesús “Chucho” García, Afro-Venezuelan Scholar, Diplomat and Activist
- Dr. Justo Bolekia Boleká, Equatorial Guinean Professor, Writer and Academician of La Real Academia Española
- Dr. Victorien Lavou Zoungbo, Professor and founder of the Journal Marges, Université de Perpignan (France)

Keynote Speaker: Dr. Molefi Kete Asante, Temple University

Sponsors:
Howard University College of Arts And Sciences
Department of World Languages And Cultures

Co-Sponsors
Howard University Center for African Studies
Mayor’s Office of Latino Affairs, DC Government

Contact for the Conference:
Clément Animan Akassi, Ph.D.
animanclement@yahoo.fr;
adadecade@gmail.com
Cel.: (240) 481 3978/Fax: 202 806 6760

With the Partnership of:
Howard University Department of African Studies.
Howard University Ralph Bunche Center.
Howard University Interdisciplinary Research Group on African and African Diaspora Studies, Department of World Languages and Cultures
Changó, Spanish Cultural Society at Howard University.
Writing Center, Morgan State University.
Maldon Language Interpreters,
Mayor’s Office of African Affairs, DC Government,
Embassy of France Cultural Services, Embassy of France in U.S.

Webmaster
Maldon Language Interpreters

www.panafricanhoward2015.com