

Howard University Interpersonal Violence Prevention Program (IVPP) Resources and Referral Options

 Medical Assistance Howard University Hospital 202-865-6100 Student Health Center 202-806-7540 SANE Program 800-641-4028	 Advocacy & Support Services Interpersonal Violence Prevention Program* 202-238-2382 University Counseling Services* 202-806-6870 DC Rape Crisis Center 202-232-0789 My Sister's Place 202-529-5991	 Emergency Services On-Campus: HU Department of Public Safety 202-806-1100 Off-Campus: Metropolitan Police Department 911	 Housing or Academic Accommodations Office of Student Services 202-238-2420 Office of Residence Life 202-806-6131
--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Medical Assistance <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Students can go to the Howard University Hospital for medical services. • The Student Health Center can provide health services and referrals. • A Sexual Assault Exam is available at Washington Hospital Center. The exam includes preventive treatment for sexually transmitted infections, pregnancy and evidence collection. The exam is conducted by a Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner (SANE) who is a Registered Nurse with advanced training and certification in conducting sexual assault exams. The Network for Victim Recovery of DC (NVRDC) provides advocates on site. • A rape kit can only be done at Washington Hospital Center SANE Program. • A police report is not required to receive medical assistance 	Advocacy, Support Services, Housing & Academic Accommodations <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Interpersonal Violence Prevention Program (IVPP) provides information, referrals and can connect students with an advocate (*confidential source). • The Office of Student Services assists with academic and housing accommodations, referrals, disciplinary and judicial affairs. • University Counseling Services provides individual and group counseling and psychotherapy, crisis intervention and consultation (*confidential source). • The Office of Residence Life can assist with housing accommodations. • DC Rape Crisis Center provides a crisis line, 24-hour advocacy, and counseling services. • My Sisters Place provides a 24-hour crisis line and counseling services. Emergency Services <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Howard University Department of Public Safety provides 24-hour emergency services. • Students can also call 911 for 24-hour emergency services from the Metropolitan Police Department.
Title IX Coordinator: Carol McKinnon, 202-806-4343 or Deputy Title IX Coordinator, Candi Smiley, 202-806-2561 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Investigates and ensures Title IX Compliance and implementation of university policy and procedures 	