

Howard University Title IX Office

Howard University is committed to creating and maintaining a welcoming and inclusive learning and working environment, free from all forms of gender-based discrimination and sexual misconduct. The Title IX Office responds to all reports regarding sexual assault, sexual harassment, gender-based discrimination and harassment, sexual exploitation, dating and domestic violence, stalking, retaliation and complicity. The Title IX Office also educates the University community on the rights and responsibilities that are provided in the University's Policy Prohibiting Sex and Gender-Based Discrimination, Sexual Misconduct and Retaliation (Title IX Policy) and by the law.

The Title IX Office is working remotely/off-campus until further notice and continues to provide support, resources, and services to the University community via email, phone and video conferencing. Title IX Officers are available to receive reports and information, conduct intake interviews, and answer questions about the Title IX policy and procedures.
